Proclamation

Whereas, each year, people across New York State come together to pay tribute to our men and women in uniform who show the utmost dedication to upholding the law and ensuring the public safety, often at great risk and, today, we solemnly join to commemorate those who made the greatest of sacrifices in doing so; and

Whereas, our law enforcement community deserves the highest level of honor and respect for vigilantly fulfilling the duties and responsibilities of their work, for maintaining the peace and integrity of life in our communities, and for courageously taking on the challenges of their work each day; and

Whereas, we acknowledge all of the uniformed and non-uniformed officers who comprise the various ranks of law enforcement and who exemplify the pride and professionalism of this outstanding community; and

Whereas, in commemoration of Police Memorial Day, we express our profound gratitude and respect for those who have made the ultimate sacrifice in service to us, and we provide comfort, condolence, and fellowship to each officer's family and friends for their enduring sense of pain and loss; and

Whereas, we pay tribute to all law enforcement officers who, throughout centuries, have dedicated their lives to the protection of our citizens, and who eternally remain our keepers of peace;

Now, Therefore, I, Andrew M. Cuomo, Governor of the State of New York, do hereby proclaim May 6, 2014 as in the Empire State.

POLICE MEMORIAL DAY

Given under my hand and the Privy Seal of the State at the Capitol in the City of Albany this fourteenth day of April in the year two thousand fourteen.

Police Officers Memorial

Roll of Honor

The Memorial wall is divided into twelve panels lettered (A - L) at the base of the wall from right to left. Each panel is divided in half and identified as either top or bottom. To find the name of a fallen officer, locate the officer's name in the Roll of Honor, and then read to the far right to determine the panel and whether top or bottom. Names on the wall are placed randomly and without rank, as every officer's sacrifice is the same.
